

Medical Malpractice Insurance Cost

Media Comments

"North Carolina is facing a medical malpractice liability crisis, along with other states around the country, as premiums have become unbearable. For one N.C. obstetrician, premiums rocketed to 385,000 dollars from 85,000 dollars last year (over a 400% increase); for some neurosurgeons in the state, rates rose 50%. "The American Medical Association".

"Malpractice rates won't ease..." Orlando Sentinel

"The insurance industry is unfairly bilking our doctors," Steve Toole - Washington St. Trial Lawyers Assoc.

"Soaring Malpractice premiums stun many doctors" USA TODAY

"Malpractice Premiums Triple and Quadruple..." Missouri Tribune

"The Florida Medical Association on Wednesday said it collected by e-mail and fax the more than 1,000 affidavits from physicians in many different specialties and 44 counties." Tallahassee Democrat

Disclaimer**

All material herein was prepared by RSI Inc (RSI) based upon information supplied by the company or other sources believed to be reliable. The information contained herein is not guaranteed by RSI to be accurate, and should not be considered to be all-inclusive.

What does this imply? The first $100,000 or more that patients pay your doctor goes right out past the doctor to his/her insurance company to pay for lawsuits against all doctors who have made serious mistakes. Hmmm....

Disclaimer

BodyTalk is intended to enhance relaxation, increase communication within areas of the body, and to educate regarding possible energetic or emotional blocks that may create pain and disease. BodyTalk is non-invasive, safe, and objective. It utilizes the body's own innate intelligence to reestablish communication within itself.

BodyTalk is not a substitute for medical treatment or medications. The BodyTalk Practitioner does not diagnose illness or disease nor does the Practitioner prescribe medications. Bill Dewey is not a licensed medical doctor and comments made on this web site or in person are not intended to substitute for those of a licensed medical professional.

Other BodyTalk practitioners listed on this web site, including links to another locations, are subject to abilities and limitations according to their individual credentials. No responsibility is assumed by Bill Dewey for the actions of others through association.